Minnesota Credit Union Foundation elects new Board members, table officers

ST. PAUL, Minn. – The Minnesota Credit Union Foundation (MNCUF) Board of Directors named its table officers last week during a meeting Aug. 14. Four incumbents and one new Board member were elected at MNCUF’s Annual Meeting in July.

The following Board members will serve a one-year term:

- Chuck Albrecht, Mid-Minnesota Federal Credit Union, Baxter;
- Mary Hansen, Mayo Employees Federal Credit Union, Rochester;
- Lynn Kothe, North Memorial Federal Credit Union, Robbinsdale;
- Krisit Mukomela, Novation Credit Union, Oakdale, and;
- Judy Root, Bluestone Federal Credit Union, Eagan.

Mukomela was reelected to serve as the MNCUF Board Chair, along with Kothe as Vice Chair and Root as Secretary/Treasurer. Mukomela is serving her fifth year on the Board, Kothe and Root are in their fourth terms, and Hansen is in her third. This is Albrecht’s first year on the MNCUF Board.

“The Foundation has created a three-year strategic plan and is currently working toward achieving the goals we set in that plan,” Mukomela said. “Our vision is to have all Minnesotans achieve financial independence, and our mission is to provide resources for credit unions and communities to prosper and thrive.”

In 2007, MNCUF helped fund the Minnesota Credit Union Network’s Small Credit Union Conference, the international partnership with Paraguay, and provided educational grants for credit union professionals and volunteers.

The MNCUF was founded in 1969 to serve as a charitable arm of the Minnesota credit union movement. It has aided credit unions, their employees and volunteers in many times of need, providing funds for educational scholarships, charitable purposes and for the betterment of the movement.
